C. OF C. DIRECTORS ALIGN WITH COUNCIL BACK OF BEACH HIGHWAY

Al Barnes, Promoter, Presents Promotion at Directors-Council Meeting and Secures Endorsement of Those in Attendance

COST TO THE CITY IS NOT DISCUSSED

Councilmen Had Been Considering Proposition for Some Time It Is Revealed; Reeves Introduces the Proposition

Alignment of the city council and the directors of the Chamber of Commerce back of a projected 80-foot highway direct route to and from the beaches was revealed at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the city council last night.

The Chamber of Commerce directors endorsed the proposition after presentation by its promoter, at the request of the city council, which, it was explained, had had the promotion under consideration for some time. The cost to the city was not discussed.

The 80-foot highway, with a roadway 60 feet in width between curbing, would be a direct route from Glendale to the beaches, cutting off several miles in distance and eliminating many dangerous highway crossings, according to A. L. Barnes, of 1209 Humley drive, Los Angeles. After a brief consideration of the proposed highway, the board, on motion of Peter Ferry, went on record as endorsing the proposition, and it was decided to appoint a committee to look further into the matter and report to the chamber at the earliest possible date.

This road has been subject to the private consideration of the Glendale city council for some time, it was learned, and it was through the suggestion of the council and City Manager Reeves that Mr. Barnes appeared before the chamber of commerce directors. He was introduced to the directors by Mr. Reeves.

The proposed highway, according to Mr. Barnes, has the unqualified endorsement of all the improvement associations from Glendale to Santa Monica, and also the Hollywood chamber of commerce. The people all along the route are boosting for the road, according to Mr. Barnes, who states that the feasibility of the route is beyond question.

It was the opinion of Mr. Barnes that if this proposed road is constructed it will prove to be the most important road leading into Glendale before many years. The boulevard as proposed by Mr. Barnes will leave the present Brand boulevard-Glendale boulevard route into Los Angeles at Ivanhoe, or just the other side of the bridge over the Los Angeles river. From this point the road will run up Hybernian canyon over a maximum grade of 3.2 per cent, and will connect with Santa Monica boulevard at the nearest possible point, the length of the proposed road being something over two miles.

Mr. Barnes stated that if this proposed stretch is improved it will be the most direct route from Glendale to the beach that could be secured and, incidentally, would open Glendale to the wonderful western part of Los Angeles, toward which section the business portion of that city is rapidly growing. It is in this western part of Los Angeles, that some of the most desirable type of homes are located above the ordinary, said Mr. Barnes, and it is principally to this class of people that this roadway would make Glendale accessible.

After the chamber directors had given their endorsement to the project, they instructed Secretary Rhoades, upon the request of Mr. Barnes, to provide Mr. Barnes with a letter stating that such endorsement had been given by the chamber and that the chamber will do everything possible to have the road constructed as outlined.

Mr. Barnes stated that a meeting of the highway planning commission of Los Angeles will be held Friday in that city, and that it would like to present this endorsement before that body at that time.

Spanish War Veterans to Elect Officers

The annual election of officers of the Spanish War Veterans will be held at the hall at the corner of Park and Brand tonight. At that time the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place, after which refreshments will be served and a good time will be enjoyed.

NEW PATROLMEN

John Penner of 409 South Glendale avenue and William La Rock, 3515 West Lexington, Hollywood, have been appointed to the positions of patrolmen on the Glendale police force by Chief of Police Fraser. They go on duty immediately.

THE WEATHER

Southern California: Tonight and Thursday, fair, light to heavy frost in early morning. Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair, moderately warm weather tonight and Thursday.

CLASSIFIED PAGE HAS QUAINT IDEA FOR YOUR XMAS

Christmas suggestions flooded into the classified department early today. They came in big and little form, each with something of value, if an idea is of value, to you. You may find something you have been looking for, something that just fills the bill, from handkerchief to wrist watch. It will be a good idea to just clip these advertisements out, they are all together, and shop around. There's a lot of enterprising merchants back of these suggestions. And they show a lot of hard thinking.

WEST SIDE FOLKS VOTE FOR A BUS

Appoints Committee to Watch Proceedings of the City Council

ADOPT REGULATIONS

Committee Appointed to Hear Annexation Speakers Tonight

The West Glendale Improvement Association went on record last night as strongly favoring the proposed motor bus line, and a committee was appointed to attend several meetings of the City Council to watch the proceedings in order that when the motor bus question comes up, they may support the proposition. The committee includes Messrs. Newby, Streit and Anderson. C. D. Gulick presented his permit.

The meeting was held at Columbus avenue school at 8 o'clock and Mr. Anderson presided. He read a revision of the by-laws and the constitution which were adopted by the association.

The question of annexation came up, but before deciding definitely on the stand they will take in the matter, a committee was appointed to attend the annexation meeting at the high school Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Councilman Criswell and a Mr. Smith of Los Angeles will be the principal speakers of the evening.

MOVIE ACTOR'S TEMPERAMENT IS BUMPED

Switch Engine Intrudes Into Stunt and Bangs Stunt Car

Movie thrillers are thrilled. Ruth Roland, movie star; George Marshall, her director; and Alfie Thompson, her cameraman, and a dozen other people, members of her company were somewhat shaken up yesterday afternoon when a great, big, old, rude steam engine bumped in and spoiled their perfectly good moving picture taking party, according to a report.

The "location" was on Glendale avenue near Doran street. The movie crew had a box car all their own for their private use. They didn't want to have anything to do with an ordinary box car. The car they used was built for stunt purposes and when the engine bumped, it was shunting a freight car came along and hit "that ere" stunt creature there was sure something doing, as they say.

According to the report, Miss Roland, her director, cameraman and other numerous assistants were deposited on the roadway. Four movie cameras, valued at $10,000, were splintered and the stunt car itself was reduced to a pile of wreckage.

That ended the fun for the day. Miss Roland became hysterical. Marshall tried to quiet her, but he failed. Thompson tried to comfort the two, while the "prop" men and the rest of the crew decided they'd call it a day and go home. After the car has been repaired and the actors have returned, nervously, to normal, they are coming back to Glendale to complete the filming of the play.

400 SACKS SHIPPED

Tuesday evening 400 sacks of mail addressed to all parts of the United States and Canada left the Glendale postoffice, which effected a clean-up of everything deposited that day. The incoming mail was also handled in as expeditious manner and within two hours of its arrival was on the wagons en route to patrons.

C. OF C. SHOULD SUPPORT COUNCIL WHEN ITS ACTIONS ARE OPPOSED BY PUBLIC

So Declares Councilman Davis Before Directors-Council Meeting to Establish Harmony of Purpose and Work

MAYOR ADVOCATES MUTUAL SUPPORT

City Manager Declares Some Pretty Big Jobs to Be Put Over This Year and Every Organization Should Work for the Good of City

The weekly meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, held Tuesday in Glen Inn, proved to be one of those good old-time love feasts, in which members of civic organizations sometimes indulge. There were friendly criticisms, presentations of verbal bouquets and promises to be good—in fact, everything that naturally goes to round out a highly satisfactory program of that sort.

"We invited you council members here with sincerity of purpose," said President Jesse Smith of the chamber.

"We feel that the chamber and the council should work hand in hand on matters that concern the welfare of Glendale. We should cooperate more closely. In the past there have been apparent misunderstandings, but those, we hope, have all been cleared away."

The first speaker to be called was Mayor Robinson. He entered a plea for a cleaning of the slate and a new start.

"There have been differences between the city council and chamber of commerce in the past," he said, "but there is no doubt in my mind but that all those little things have been forgotten. We are all fighting as hard as we can for the city of Glendale. We must all pull for all parts of the city. Our organizations must get behind each other, each must uphold the other in the work it is doing. We appreciate having been invited down to your luncheon, and we hope to be able to return the courtesy before a great while."

"I think the chamber of commerce should uphold the Glendale city council when it does something that is for the best interests of the city," said Councilman Davis. "Especially when the action does not receive a favorable decision on the part of the general public. You should stand some of the bluntness of the criticism. The council should have the respect of the citizens of Glendale. Your organization has done a great deal of good and it will doubtless do a lot of good in the future. You are to be congratulated for the many things you have accomplished."

"You have started on the right foot," said Councilman Dwight Stephenson, "the sooner the council and the chamber get together the better it will be. The chamber of commerce has a distinct place in the community and the city council, and if each will stay in its place there will be no reason for friction. I am sure that in the future each will confine itself to its sphere of activities."

"The big thing in Glendale is to have a section-line city. If the chamber of commerce does nothing this year but to eliminate the talk regarding the different sections of town and form the city into one zone, whole, it will have accomplished something worth while, and it will have done a thing that is worth all the money spent, the time given and energy expended."

"I appreciate this opportunity of being able to attend this luncheon as a member of the city council," said Councilman Kimlin. "I look to the chamber of commerce and the council to work harmoniously throughout this year. I am sure that if there is any way that the co-operation of these two bodies can be brought about the members

$15,000 CADILLAC IS HELD HERE FOR VIEW

The $15,000 Cadillac cut-out chassis on display at the Court Motor company show room at 235 South Brand boulevard has proved such an attraction that it has been almost impossible to properly take care of the large number of people who have been in to see it. To date the Elks have given $50, the Kiwanis and Glendale Advancement associations $25 each.

A meeting of the Glendale float committee was held Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce and arrangements were made to call on all the organizations to yet heard from with donations for the float. L. B. Chobe reported good work by the carpenters and the framework almost completed. It is being built at 120 Santa Maryland. To date the Elks have given $50, the Kiwanis and Glendale Advancement associations $25 each.

PRELIMINARIES TO P. E. TRACK LOWERING

The work of lowering the P. E. tracks south of Colorado street is taking a slow and methodical course. The cross-over at Garfield avenue was completed last week, but the one at Colorado still lacks connection with the west track. Several carloads of cross-ties have been unloaded and it is evident that all of the old ones are to be replaced. The real work of track lowering will commence next week, only one track being handled at one time, the other to be used by cars moving in both directions by means of the two cross-overs.

XMAS EXERCISES

The Christmas exercises of the Congregational church are to be held in Odd Fellows' hall at the session of the Sunday school Sunday morning, when gifts for needy children will be brought.

GATEWAY THEATRE TO BE STARTED THIS WEEK

Depends on Securing the Steam Shovel to Begin Operations

Ground will be broken for the $50,000 Gateway theatre, which will be constructed by Fred Miller of the California theatre of Los Angeles and associates on San Fernando road, before the close of this week, if the present plans of the Winter Construction company, which will do the actual construction work, are carried out.

Richard R. P. Lehman, engineer of the Winter Construction company, who is preparing all of the plans for the building, stated this morning that in the event that a steam shovel can be secured, the work of excavating will be started this week. It is expected by those in charge of this work that the theatre will be finished and ready for occupation by May 1, 1923.

The size of the building will be 70x150 feet. It will be semi-mission style in architecture and will have stucco exterior and red tile roof. The seating capacity will be about 900.

"Twenty feet of the front will be given to the entrance to the theatre and on either side of this will be a 25-foot store room. The front section of the upper floor will be taken up by offices."

200 FAMILIES TO BE HELPED BY THE ELKS

Gifts of Clothing, Shoes, Blankets and Toys to Be Given

Members of the relief committee of the Elks' lodge, of which Stanley Prentiss is chairman, stated in response to inquiries this morning that 200 families are to be remembered by the organization this Christmas and every one of their expressed wishes covered. This means gifts of clothing, shoes, blankets and toys and the field covered is not Glendale alone but the entire jurisdiction, including Burbank, Tujunga, La Crescenta, San Fernando, Sanguis, Newhall and as far north as Elizabeth lake.

The purchases are practically completed and have all been made in Glendale. The packing of crates is to begin tomorrow and the distribution will take place Saturday and Sunday.

The basement of the Elks' club looks like a Santa Claus warehouse.

$100,000 CUT FROM BUDGET OF SCHOOLS

Advisory Committee Suggests Retrenchments in Meeting Congestion

The special committee appointed by the advisory committee of the schools to go over the tentative estimates of school buildings needed to relieve congestion the coming year, met Tuesday evening at the headquarters of the board of education and reviewed the figures submitted at the meeting last week. The session lasted until nearly 11 o'clock and resulted in recommendations which will be submitted to the full committee Thursday evening, and which suggest retrenchments amounting to about $100,000.

Captain William C. Wattles, chairman of the committee, presided, other members being Mrs. Myrtle Buckman, H. V. Henry, Harold L. Adams and Mrs. William R. Wicher.

CONSERVATIVE PROVED NOT SPEECHLESS

LONDON. (By Mail).—During his campaign in connection with the general election, Harold Stranger, Independent Liberal candidate for Newbury, offered to give $25 to a local charity if any member of his audience could prove that General Brown, the Conservative M. P. in the last parliament, had ever spoken in the House of Commons. A man in the audience rose and declared that General Brown once said: "It's stuffy in here; please open the windows." Mr. Stranger paid up. Incidentally, Gen. Brown was re-elected.

SAM DAVIS PROPOSES A CENSORSHIP ON ALL NEWS OF CITY-C. OF C. PROMOTIONS

Declares "They" Should Have Right to State Exactly the Kind of Publicity Given Out on "Any Proposition We Are Promoting"

RESENTS THE AIRPORT PURCHASE STORY

Don't Like the Way Stories Appeared in Newspapers of the City; Should Have Told of All the Water Under 33 Acres, He Says

At the combined meeting of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and the city council in Glen Inn Tuesday, when the council members were the guests of the chamber, the matter of placing strict censorship on the news concerning the operations of the two organizations was taken up and discussed at length.

"I think we should have the right to state exactly the kind of publicity that is given out with regard to any proposition we are promoting," said Councilman Davis, "and especially with regard to the first story concerning any project that is published."

"The first stories that were printed with regard to the purchase recently of the 33 acres of land by the city were misleading. We purchased that land first for its water-bearing qualities, second for the purpose of locating small industries along the section that fronts on the Southern Pacific tracks and thirdly for airport purposes. When these stories appeared in the papers the airport was played up as the big feature, and hardly anything was said about the land as water-bearing."

The first story on the purchase of the land was furnished the Press by Roy L. Kent, who with City Manager Reeves and Mr. Hewitt, the Glendale inquiry later at the city hall resulted in the city manager directing the newspapers to Mr. Kent as the source of all publicity on the expenditure by the council of $65,000 of the city's money.

President Jesse Smith of the chamber also stated that, in his opinion, too much publicity as a rule is given to the press, and that all news given out should be carefully considered before being permitted to be printed.

UNITY LODGE HAS INSTALLATION SERVICES

H. A. Strong Is Seated as Worshipful Master of Blue Lodge

Installation of officers of Unity Lodge No. 368, F. & A. M., took place Tuesday night at Masonic Temple, Glendale, in the presence of 300 members, and with John Hobbs, inspector of this district, as installing officer, and Dwight W. Stephenson, retiring master, as master of ceremonies. The officers installed were: H. A. Strong, worshipful master; Newton Van Why, senior warden; Arthur H. Dillman, junior warden; Daniel Campbell, treasurer; A. W. Tower, secretary; A. L. Chandler, chaplain; William E. Moody, senior deacon; George H. Blyth, junior deacon; H. M. Morton, marshal; N. G. Davidson, senior steward; S. S. Gibby, junior steward; Charles H. (Dad) Ravenscroft, Tyler; Don C. Lindley, organist; Serafini, vocalist. The officers installed were all called upon for brief talks.

Frederick Baker, past master of Unity Lodge, and who is inspector-elect for this district, presented Mr. Stephenson with the past master ring on behalf of the lodge. Mr. Stephenson responded with a few appropriate words of thanks. Inspector John Hobbs announced that the grand master of Masons of the State of California, in recognition of Mr. Stephenson's services in the past year, has appointed him as a member of the educational committee of the grand lodge of the State of California. Following the business session the members adjourned to the banquet room, where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed.

LEGION GAME IS OFF. The American Legion basketball team will have no game this week because of the fact that El Monte's team, with whom a game was scheduled, is not ready to play. There will be no basketball practice until after the holidays on account of the high school gymnasium being closed for vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Woodburn, who recently sold their property at 636 E. Harvard street, went to Little Rock today to spend a few months with a son of Mrs. Woodburn, Logan Mitchell. They will return to Glendale in the spring and occupy property they own at 951 N. Louise.

South A. L. Bancroft of 1423 South Brand boulevard returned recently from Oakland where she has been visiting for a number of weeks.

EAST SIDE FOLKS CONTRIBUTE $25 TO FLOAT FUND

Hear Reports of Committee on the Many Activities

The principal event of the Glendale Advancement luncheon held Tuesday at the Broadway Inn, was the collection of about $25 among the members present for the Glendale float fund. Owing to a misunderstanding about the meeting day only about 25 were present. Committee reports showed activity but no decisive results.

Relative to the desired branch postoffice Dr. Stuart stated that an inspector had visited his store in which he had proposed to make room for an office and he had heard nothing further except that he had understood Postmaster Jackson's report upon it. The department was adverse. Members expressed considerable disappointment and some bitterness over the apparent disregard of the convenience of that part of the city in postal accommodation.

President Ingledue urged action relative to securing promised deed from the board of education to land needed for the widening of Forest Lawn avenue, stating that the engineers were on the ground and laying out the street. Unless the matter is pushed he feared the parkways would be absorbed.

Mrs. Tigh reported activity on the part of the hotel committee, but nothing decisive to announce. Dr. Stuart added that so many applicants to lease the hotel were presenting themselves that the committee had to have calling days. Dr. Jessie Russell reported plans for the Community Service Christmas tree and celebration on the high school grounds Christmas night and the association adjourned not to meet again until the first Tuesday in January.

YOUNG WOMEN ARE ACCOSTED ON STREETS

Police Notified of Two Who Are Insulted by Unidentified Man

Two young ladies were accosted on the streets of Glendale after dark Tuesday night by a man or men, the identity of whom has not been learned.

Miss Bernice Fannon, 145 North Howard street, was stopped by a man who sprang before her at 6:15 o'clock from the rear of a building just north of Wilson on Howard, as she was returning to her home from the Broadway electric line. Miss Fannon stated, according to police records, that the fellow made questionable remarks to her.

L. L. Barton, 636 East Elk, reported to the police that at about 6 o'clock a man accosted his daughter while she was walking along Colorado street between Louise and Kenwood. On this occasion, also, indecent remarks were made by the fellow.

BUSINESS WOMEN HOLD XMAS KID PARTY

50 Members Attend the Christmas Tree for Poor Children

About fifty members enjoyed the jolly little Christmas kid party at the club home of the Business and Professional Women's club on South Maryland avenue Tuesday evening. The holiday decorations glowed in a beautiful little Christmas tree around which the gifts of toys brought by members for poor children were piled. On tables were collected the donations to the larger of the clubhouse, canned fruits and vegetables, package goods of all sorts, potatoes, sugar, etc., and in a glass pitcher money donations were poured which totaled about $20.

Not all the members came in costume but those who were in character, including the president, Dr. Laura Brown, attracted the more attention and were the envy of the less enterprising guests.

An entertaining program of games was directed by Miss Corinne Orr, who has been attending the leadership institute of Community Service, after which Christmas carols, which are to be sung around the community Christmas tree next Monday night, were rehearsed, with Mrs. Virginia Freeman at the piano.

Bill Rhodes, a pupil of the Emerson School of Dramatic Expression, delighted the company with two recitations, "How Jack Tends the Baby," and "Before the Folks Come Home." Mrs. Adeline McCoy, also from the Emerson school, recited an original poem about losing her sons and finding three daughters. Miss Barton and several others told stories.

Before the club adjourned it voted to divide the Christmas toys between children of the Orthopedic hospital and Monte Vista home.

CHRISTMAS CAROL FOR TODAY IN THE SERVICE

Gold King Wenceslas look'd out
Glad King Wenceslas look'd out
When the snow lay round about,
Deep, and crisp, and even;
Brightly shone the moon that night,
Though the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight,
Gath'ring winter fuel.

"Hither, page, and stand by me,
If thou know'st it, telling,
Yonder peasant, who is he?
Where and what his dwelling?
Sire, he lives a good life hence
Underneath the mountain;
Right against the forest fence,
By Saint Agnes' fountain."

"Bring me flesh, and bring me wine,
Bring me pine-logs hither;
Thou and I will see him dine,
When we bear them hither.
Page and minstrel forth they went,
Forth they went together;
Through the rude wind's wild lament
And the bitter weather.

"Sire, the night is darker now,
And the wind blows stronger;
Falls my heart, I know not how,
I can go no longer.
Mark my footsteps, good my page!
Tread thou in them boldly;
Thou shalt find the winter's rage
Freeze thy blood less coldly."

In his master's steps he trod,
Where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod
Which the saint had printed.
Therefore, Christian men, be sure
Wealth or rank increases,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
Shall yourselves find blessing.

King Wenceslas, the hero of this English legend, was a real personage. Wenceslas, the Holy, was King of Bohemia from 928-945. After his coronation he tried to establish Christianity as the predominant religion. His brother objected, and later brought about the death of the King. In Bohemia, Wenceslas is honored as the protecting saint. For many years his crown was used at the coronation of the king of Bohemia.

The story of the song as written by Dr. Neale, relates a kind deed which the king performed for a poor peasant, and the miracle that followed. It took place on December 26, the day of the Feast of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. The song ends with the drawing of a moral to adorn the tale. This exhortation to give to the poor was doubtless one of the reasons why in the old time out-door caroling, this song was usually sung just before the Wassail song, which is a direct appeal for gifts.

MAIDS AND MATRONS SECTION HOLDS MEETING

The members of the Maids and Matrons section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, of which Mrs. Julian Hayward is curator, held a most enjoyable luncheon and Christmas party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Claude G. Putnam, 424 North Glendale avenue, with twenty members present. The luncheon table was centered with a prettily decorated Christmas tree which also had its branches laden with imitation snow. All present were dressed as children and a great deal of merriment was created by Santa Claus distributing children's gifts to them.

The response to roll call was given by some Christmas thought, song, recitation, etc. The program for the afternoon included a selection from "The Birds' Christmas Carol," the preparations of the Ruggles family for Christmas being that chosen. Those who took part in this skit included Mrs. G. R. Postle, as "Ma" Ruggles; Mrs. J. A. Beyer, as Sarah Maule; Mrs. S. Ross, as Cornelia; Mrs. W. F. Macpherson, as Clem; Miss F. Scott, as Susan; Mrs. E. L. Osborn, Jr., as Kitty; Mrs. C. C. Carroll, as Peter; Mrs. Mae Rosenberg, as Perry; Mrs. B. H. Scott, as Lily; Mrs. John Cole, as Larry.

The next meeting of the section will be held in January.

HIGH JUNIORS HOLD PRETTY PARTY

The juniors of Glendale High had a pretty party Saturday night in the girls' gym which was adorned with Christmas decorations, the refreshments of which Florence McLaughlin was chairman, being served in the school cafeteria where the class colors were used. Ronald West, president, Emma Laura Cooper, and Howard Jones were the committee in charge and Mesdames Charles Guthrie and C. G. Cooper were the chaperoning mothers. The evening was devoted to games and about 75 were present.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB TO ENJOY PROGRAM

The members of the Thursday Afternoon club of Glendale will enjoy a Christmas program Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy S. Bancroft, 121 West Eulalia street.

The leading number will be a characterization reading by Miss Hazel Campbell, who will be assisted by Mrs. Jeffrey Svendfen, a soprano and accompanist. There will also be other special musical numbers. The meeting will open at 2:30.

JONESES TO OPEN THEIR NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones will open their new home on Kenneth Road for a family gathering Christmas night, the guest list including Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of Los Angeles and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Furst and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pigg, and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Pigg.

SENIOR HIGH HAS MERRY PARTY IN GYM

A large and merry crowd filled the girls' gymnasium Tuesday night when the Scholastic entertained with a Christmas dance.

The spacious room was beautifully decorated in Christmas colors, using the large red bells, tinsel, and at various intervals around the room were stationed brightly lighted Christmas trees.

A splendid orchestra furnished the music and during the evening punch was served.

Among the patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Yarek and Mrs. S. Pollock.

DE MOLAY ORDER TO HAVE FIRST SOCIAL AFFAIR

The first social affair to be staged by the Order of De Molay will be given Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple. This affair will be in the nature of a dance to which members of the order and their friends are cordially invited.

The spacious Masonic Hall will be brilliant with Yuletide decorations and a jolly evening is anticipated. Music will be furnished by an orchestra from the University of California, southern branch. Proceeds will be used to purchase regalia for the Order.

Those in charge of the affair are Stillman Chase, Jr., Allen K. Pollock, Wilfred M. Cline, Samuel Thompson, Wesley J. Goodfellow and Valentine Hollingsworth.

Patrons and patronesses of the evening will include Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Vance, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Redd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Balthis and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomson.

BROADWAY FATHERS POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting of fathers of the Broadway School which was to have been held Tuesday evening, has been postponed to the first Tuesday in January.

BROADWAY P.T.A. EXECUTIVE OFFICERS MEET

At the executive meeting of officers of the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. W. R. Wicher, 1141 East Harvard street, plans were discussed for next year's work. It was decided to hold a sale of "hot dogs," ice cream cones, etc., for the school children twice a month. At the close of the business session a social afternoon was enjoyed.

A Daily Tour of Glendale Stores

UTILITY GIFTS FOR THE WHOLE YEAR, HERE

"Give useful gifts," says James Webb of the Glendale Hardware company, 6013 East Broadway. "There is nothing to this idea of giving things that are broken in a day or a week, or possibly are put in the bureau drawer immediately after the holidays and not unearthed for years.

"Give something that the recipient will use the year around—something that will prove of service to him every day. That is the only kind of gift worth while after all."

In support to this idea one of the largest lines of practical and useful features to be found in Glendale has been placed in stock by the Glendale Hardware company.

This store carries the very latest things in the way of fireless and steam cookers, and has a full line of aluminum ware, percolators, thermos goods, cutlery, pyrex ware. It carries the Auto Strop, Gillette and many of the other types of safety razor sets that are on the market today. For the kiddies it has velocipedes, kiddie cars, speedsters, wagons and scooters.

This store is agent for the Solarglo radiant heaters, which are proving so popular in Glendale this year. A full line of granite and white enamel ware is maintained at all times.

Special preparations have been made by this firm to supply the needs of the Glendale people along this "useful gifts" line. Every article in the store is priced right and the service afforded could hardly be improved.

KLAMM HAS ARRAY OF XMAS JEWELRY

Extensive preparations for the handling of the Christmas trade have been made by J. Clarence Klam, O. D., at his jewelry establishment at 600 East Broadway. For quite a number of years Mr. Klam's store has been the headquarters for Christmas shopping of a large number of Glendale residents, so far as their jewelry needs are concerned. Realizing this fact this enterprising merchant has put in a large line of the various things that are generally needed for Christmas gifts, and has gone far out of his way to secure unusual features that are sure to please those wishing anything along the jewelry line.

For the women, Mr. Klam has a complete line of wrist watches, pearls, brooches, and many other things that are sure to please. The needs of the men, also, have been well taken care of. There are belts, buckles, watches, cuff links, pins, combs, knives, chains, and many other acceptable gifts.

Mr. Klam has been in the jewelry and optician business in Glendale for the past seven years, five of which time he has been at his present location. His establishment is one of the oldest of its kind in Glendale.

HOME MOTIF IN GROSSMAN-MILLER CO. GIFTS

More than one party will be happy over a Christmas gift purchased at the Grossman-Miller Furniture Company at 246 North Brand boulevard. There are cedar chests for sister, sewing cabinets, chests, holders, book ends, over-stuffed sets and floor lamps for mother, an easy chair for father, smoking stands for brother. For the kiddies, wouldn't they be happy though to have a really and truly new toy truck in which to pack away dolly's best dresses. There are also some "kiddie kars," children's writing desks, breakfast sets, dollies with real hair, and oh, so many nice things.

Whether it would be for a Christmas gift or for furnishing or refurbishing the home a trip to the Grossman-Miller Store at Brand Boulevard and California Avenue would prove a revelation. The store is filled with very attractive pieces of household furnishings and the moderate prices will surprise and please you. They are closing out their stock of "Claxton" photographs at a very low price, so if you are thinking of purchasing one it would be well to investigate. You will also find a selection of attractive designs in rugs at this well-stocked store.

THE EVANSES TO BUILD

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Evans of North Orange street, expect to begin building a beautiful new home in Kenneth Heights after the first of the year on a knoll which commands the view of the whole valley. The plans are being prepared by Architect Alfred Priest and are along Spanish and Italian lines.

CONSTRUCTION OF GOLF COURSE TO START

Max Behr Engaged by Oakmont Country Club
of Glendale

Max Behr of Pasadena has signed a contract with the Oakmont Country club of Glendale, to construct its eighteen hole golf course, work to commence about January 1.

Behr is a man who can see the possibilities of the wonderful property of the club in Verdugo canyon and will give Glendale a golf course at least five years in advance of the times, which will make it the most popular in the southland.

Wm. M. Clarke of Los Angeles, who recently returned from a study of architecture in England, is busy on plans for the club house which will embody all the desirable features in use in modern club buildings. The main dining room will seat 250 and the men's grill which will be of generous proportions will take care of more than 100. The ladies will not be neglected and will have their own showers, lockers, card and lounge rooms immediately adjacent to the main lounge. In addition to a large heated swimming plunge, there will be a children's play ground under the spreading oaks where sand boxes, swings and slides will amuse the kiddies while their elders are enjoying themselves elsewhere.

It is believed that the plans will have progressed far enough to allow actual construction work to commence by the first of the year. Many of Glendale's substantial citizens have already joined the club and from present indications it looks like the first two hundred memberships will all go in Glendale, Montrose and surrounding towns. The people of this city are not slow to see the immense value of an enterprise of this character to the community and the directors of the club hope that at least one-half of the total membership of 750 will be subscribed right here at home instead of by outsiders who will not have the interests of our fair city at heart.

Among those who have recently taken memberships are Sam Woodbury, R. K. Snow, A. B. Nicklin, A. L. Baird, R. A. Puffer, Fred H. Anderson, Senator Leslie Francis, Walter Jones, Colonel R. C. Crane, T. P. Cullen, Earl L. Clarke, H. S. Webb, M. V. Hartman, Wm. H. Hooper, Will Sparr, S. B. Morse, F. P. Newport, S. R. Anderson, Marshall N. Jones, T. E. Dahlberg, J. Raymond Thorpe, and many others.

SWEET HALLIE IS PRIZE FOR SOME LITTLE GIRL

Stopping at Pendroy's
Until Tiny One Guesses
Number of Beans

It is believed that a lot of little girls in Glendale will be humming the old song:

"I'm dreaming now of Hallie, sweet Hallie, sweet Hallie," because that is the name of the beautiful doll to be given as a prize to the little girl who gives the closest guess on the number of beans in the bean jar which has been the subject of a contest for boys and girls for several weeks. Hallie is a beautiful thing in the lovely costume made by Mrs. Hallie Drake, head of the infants' wear department at Pendroy's, a rose-colored and beautifully fitting or-gandy gown, lace trimmed dainty underwear, and a picture hat. She stands 25 inches tall in her bare feet, has real curls and opens and shuts her eyes.

The prize for the boys is a wonderful elephant 17 inches tall. The count will be made Saturday morning at 9 o'clock by young women from the outside in no way connected with the store and the three winners will then be determined and notified. Hallie and the elephant are to be placed in the store windows today for all the boys and girls of Glendale to see.

Your Last Chance -- Today

$15,000 CADILLAC Cut Open Chassis

Will Be On Display for Last Time Today

On account of our inability to properly take care of the people who have visited our salesrooms to see this wonderful chassis, we have been able to secure the consent of Mr. Bayless to hold the chassis here another day. Today and tonight will be the last opportunity to see this Cadillac.

Free Motion Pictures--Everybody Welcome

Motion pictures made by the U. S. Department of Commerce will be shown at 8 p. m. You can see a Cadillac built before your eyes.

Remember—this will be your last chance to see this wonderful exhibit!

PURELY PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers and two children of 333 West Acacia avenue left last week by automobile for Des Moines, Iowa.

Recent newcomers to Glendale include Mr. and Mrs. John Topf and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Topf, who drove here from Bruce, Wisconsin, a distance of 3,000 miles, without encountering a bit of stormy weather or rain. Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Topf have already purchased a home on Concord street and will take possession this Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Henry of 315 West Harvard street will be the Christmas dinner guests of Mr.

Henry's mother, Mrs. Myra Henry, of Pasadena.

Miss Marjorie Imier of 336 West Park avenue, who has been teaching at Fillmore, is home now for the Christmas holidays. She has as her house guests for a few days, Miss Ruth Hardison and Miss Babbs, also of Fillmore.

Miss Madeline Love is returning today from Berkeley, where she is a student in the junior class at the State university, and will spend the holidays at her home, 220 West Elk avenue.

Almena Bullock, 517 West Park avenue, sang Tuesday night for the Times radio, rendering five numbers. She sang there a month ago and requests were so urgent that she was asked to appear on their program again last night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. West, 121 West Park avenue, had as their house guest all last week, Mrs. Copeland of Los Angeles.

Dorothy Shaw has arrived from Pomona, where she has been in attendance on Pomona college, to spend a three weeks' Christmas holiday at the home of her parents on West Park avenue.

W. T. Caldwell of 412 North Keawon street returned home yesterday from a Los Angeles hospital, where he underwent an operation two weeks ago. He is convalescing nicely.

Mrs. H. V. Brummel of 415 West

Wilson avenue returned Sunday from a five weeks' visit in Chicago, Illinois, and vicinity. She was accompanied on the return trip by her sister-in-law, Miss Emma Brummel, of Ottawa, Ill., who will spend the winter here.

Professor Noalot was very absentminded. One morning he drifted into the barber's to be shaved. After the operation he continued to occupy the chair and the barber, thinking he had dozed off gently reminded him by saying: "Asleep, sir?" The professor started. "Bless me, no!" he exclaimed. "I am not asleep, but I am terribly short-sighted. When I took my glasses off I was no longer able to see myself in the mirror opposite and naturally I supposed I had already gone home."

A certain actor, who walked across the stage in a street scene of a third-rate drama, was very fond of telling his friends what he would accomplish when he had a speaking part. No matter how small it was, he would show them what real acting meant.

Eventually his opportunity came. He was to appear in one of the scenes and say two words—"It is." For three weeks, nightly, before his mirror he rehearsed; trying all sorts of gestures, expressions, and tones, until he felt perfect.

The eventful night arrived when the curtain was to rise on the new play for the first time, and the actor impatiently awaited his cue. It came, "And so this is the end!"

With his best tragedian air he stalked to the center of the stage and in a voice of thunder cried, "Is it?"

Many a girl's ideal is shattered when he goes broke.

We often hear of blessings in disguise, but never a word about the numerous curses that make a specialty of doing masquerade stunts.

M'LEAN BLOCK IS BOUGHT BY L. H. WILSON

Located Corner Central Avenue and San Fernando Road

The McLean block, located at the intersection of Central avenue and San Fernando road, has been purchased by L. H. Wilson, realtor, whose office is located at the corner of Park avenue and San Fernando, the consideration being $38,000. This amount was paid $34,000 cash and $4,000 in exchange. The sale was consummated the latter part of last week and was made through the Eliza-Jane Realty company.

The property purchased by Mr. Wilson lies 142 feet on Central avenue and 124 feet on San Fernando road, being in the shape of a triangle. On one part of this property is a two-story brick block, while the other part is taken up by a one-story structure.

The downstairs of the two-story part of the building is taken up by a paint store, on the corner, a small restaurant, a garage, which space will later house a meat market. On the upper floor is the Do Luxe hotel. The Brenkman Electric company and a jewelry store occupy the one-story building.

Mr. Wilson has also purchased the northeast corner of Garfield and San Fernando road from Geraldine Foster of New York. This piece is 100 by 165 and the price paid was $8400.

P. Morkin has just purchased through the L. H. Wilson Realty company and the Eliza-Jane Realty company the corner of Carrillo and San Fernando, the consideration being $15,000. The size of this property is 75x150 feet, and the former owner was John McKay of Los Angeles.

A pretty girl leaned back in a big chair—a man bent questioningly over her. All was quiet. The oyster-gray walls of the room, with their pale mauve fringes seemed to soothe the rush of feeling that his presence roused in her and she lifted her eyes confidently to his.

Then there was a moment of tenseness. She was waiting—waiting. There was something she wanted to say—yet she could not speak. Everywhere was so still, almost she could hear his heart beating.

Suddenly a sigh fluttered from her lips. She lifted her eyes to his again, but this time pain lay deep in their depths. "You hurt me," she said.

"No, no," he said, softly. "Just once more," and his head bent close to hers. A word or two only, and he drew himself erect. "Yes, I think I can stop that tooth. There is no need to extract it," he said.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK—

BY E. R. WAITE, Secretary, Shawnee, Oklahoma Board of Commerce

THAT your city deserves boosting because of her progressiveness and her business enterprise.

THAT your city is favored by nature and is ideally located for a continuous development.

THAT successful business institutions always have a regular inventory taken of all their assets. This is an absolute business necessity, if a business wishes to maintain profitable operations.

THAT a business that shows a deficit at the end of each year for a period of years, that appears unable to reduce the deficit at any time and that moves from one year to another with a constantly heavier burden of debt, would be regarded by any intelligent person, as in a bad way indeed.

THAT it would be very evident that the conditions require some drastic action, more efficient management, a trimming of overhead expense, or a complete re-organization.

THAT a city is simply a big business. The management of its affairs calls for the same efficiency that must make private business successful.

THAT the taxpayers are the stockholders, the owners of this big business.

THAT TOO MANY PEOPLE SEEM TO THINK THAT THEIR DUTY OF CITIZENSHIP ENDS WHEN THEY VOTE AND OBEY THE LAW.

ARMY OFFICERS TO REGAIN USE OF ARM

No. 4 Salute to Be Cancelled Out of Military Grounds

MONTEREY, Dec. 20.—Army officers of the United States army are jubilant. The good old "No. 4" salute has ceased to be a bug-bear, a strain on the muscles of the right arm that required long periods of morning calisthenics to keep them in condition.

An impromptu jubilation was held at the Presidio here yesterday when the news came that salutes will hereafter be dispensed with outside the military reservation. The new order specified that "When outside of a military post, camp, station, headquarters, or armory, salutes are not required to be exchanged between officers and enlisted men except when addressing each other, or when the omission would show lack of courtesy."

The matter of abolishing saluting outside stations has been under consideration by the war department, according to officers here. The change is one of the blessings of the war when the great numbers of officers and men on the streets made the salute an onerous duty instead of a military courtesy.

INDOOR CHICKENS

There is no end of things that should be done in December besides getting ready for Christmas. Among other important things, December marks the beginning of the thousands of chimney corner schools that are held in farm houses all over the country by farmers who want to catch up in their reading. The United States Department of Agriculture is a good source of supply for bulletin textbooks on keeping chickens, gardening, or any other sort of work that deals with farming. Printed lists of department publications are mailed to people asking for them and there are enough bulletins to make a full course of study. Bulletins will be mailed on request. Start your own school this month.

GLENDALE DAILY PRESS READERS VOTE AGAINST ANNEXATION BY PHONE

Some Admit They Were Interested in Propaganda, But Soon Saw Through the Proposition and Are Now Strongly in Favor of Home Rule

Protests against annexation, gleaned by telephone from among the readers of the Glendale Daily Press and coming through the mail and over the counter, in the office, accentuate what the silent vote of Glendale will do to an annexation election, should the proposition come to a vote.

It is true that here and there friends of the annexationists are found by telephone, but they are not numerous, yet their sentiments are given here below, fully and fairly, with names and addresses.

Mr. Tanner of Tanner & Hall, auto agents, declared emphatically that he is opposed to the annexation of Glendale to Los Angeles; that he would work against it and do all he could to prevent such a union. The reasons against annexation are but too obvious, he intimated.

William Hunter of the Glendale Paint and Paper company, when his opinion of the proposition to annex Glendale to Los Angeles was sought, said: "Anyone who wants to annex to Los Angeles is weak-minded. I am 100 per cent for Glendale. I hope this annexation stuff will soon be a thing of the past. It is silly for anyone to think of annexing to the big town. There is nothing it can offer except promises and they cannot be cashed in."

Mrs. Kathryn Farrell, 453 West Patterson avenue: "As I cannot see where Glendale would be benefited by annexing to Los Angeles, I think that it is best to leave well enough alone, and I am not in favor of annexation."

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knox, 305 North Jackson street: "We are not in favor of annexation. We feel that Glendale should be kept on the map as an independent city."

Mrs. M. C. Jolley of 326 Salem street stated: "I am not in favor of annexation. I think it to be suicide for Glendale. If Glendale could advance to its present stage without any assistance, why should it now put itself under Los Angeles?"

"Glendale is the nucleus of a wonderful city. The population of Glendale is the fruit of pure, clean thought. It is a clean town, built on a dry basis, with clean, wholesome and upright people. It needs nothing that Los Angeles can supply. Annexation is the policy of a few narrow-minded property owners."

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Keim and Mrs. Sarah E. Thomas of 342 West California avenue stated in regard to annexation: "We are against it. There are a good many points for annexation, but a good many more against it."

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Betz, 405 Hawthorne street: "Although we do not feel that there would be any immediate benefits derived from annexing to Los Angeles, we are in favor of it, as we believe that in a period of say five years that this section will progress with more rapid strides if a part of Los Angeles."

Mr. and Mrs. George D. McDill, 1451 East Wilson avenue: "There is no question as to where we stand regarding the annexation question. We are for Glendale and opposed to annexing to Los Angeles."

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, 317 West Lexington drive: "We are opposed to annexation. We believe that it would do a great deal of harm to Glendale and cannot see any good that would result from joining Los Angeles."

Mrs. Frank Hall, 1201 Viola avenue: "I am not in favor of annexation, as I can see nothing special to be gained by Glendale joining Los Angeles."

"We are against it. We don't think we could accomplish anything in Los Angeles by annexing." This is the statement of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Knight of 1301 East California avenue, when asked their opinion on annexation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Horn, 107 East Chestnut street: "Absolutely vote no on annexation to Los Angeles. Why put dollars before morals? We have a clean and beautiful city. Why not keep it so? Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Barnett of 704 East Windsor join us in voting no."

E. L. Osborn, 406 West Wilson avenue: "I am very much opposed to annexation. I prefer to reside in a smaller corporation where you can handle your own affairs and see what is going on, without having to be tied up with a large city from which you can get no satisfaction."

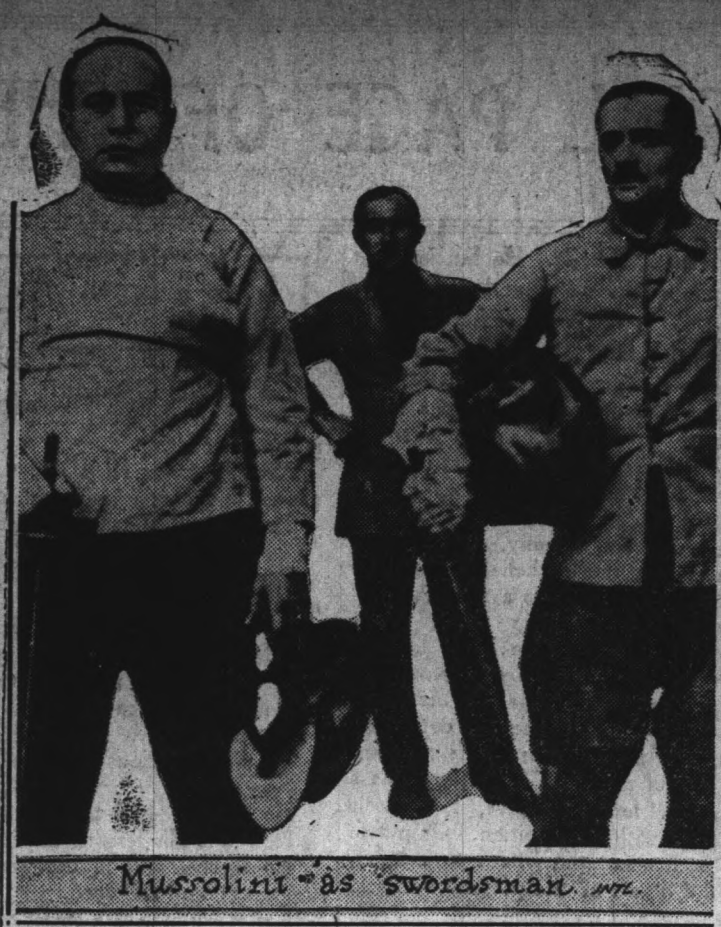

"We do not want Glendale to be annexed to Los Angeles," state Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rigdon of 224 West Doran street. "We feel that it would be best for Glendale to remain an independent city rather than become a part of a large city like Los Angeles. We see no advantages and do see many disadvantages by the consolidation of the two. If we annexed we would have to share our proportion of the Los Angeles expenses, whereas we now have only our own expenses to pay."

Speaking of the annexation proposition, Earl Naudain of the Glendale Electric company remarked the other day that when it first came up he was inclined to look upon it with favor, but he has changed his mind, because there are too many arguments against it with little or nothing to gain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fisher, 1246 East Lexington drive: "We do not see where Glendale would be benefited by annexing to Los Angeles. If we wanted any improvements made we would have to wait until they got ready to do it. We do have to do that in Glendale, too, but nevertheless we stand a better chance of getting it with Glendale as an independent city."

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fraser, 643 North Maryland avenue: "We certainly are against annexation. We have lived in Hollywood and know what Los Angeles promised that city and did not do. We are very much against annexing Glendale to Los Angeles."

MUSSOLINI KEEPS IN TRIM

Premier Mussolini of Italy, leader of the Fascists, has won favor among his people by his democratic manner and sporting conduct. He is known as one of the best swordsmen in Italy, and daily enjoys a practice duel with the fells under the instruction of M. Rodolfi, most famous of Italian fencing masters. Mussolini is shown at the left, Rodolfi at the right, after a morning's session with the fells.

IN A STRANGE TOWN

By H. ADDINGTON BRUCE

Author of "The Riddle of Personality," "Self-Development," Etc. (Copyright, 1922, by The Associated Newspapers.)

He was full of complaints when I met him. He had just returned from a business trip and had been none too successful. To cap the climax, he confided:

"Saturday and Sunday I had to wait over, in a strange town, to see a man who had unexpectedly gone away for the week-end. It was a miserable hole of a place, I didn't know a soul in it, and there was virtually nothing for me to do."

"I did manage to find a 'movie' open Saturday evening, and on Sunday I went to church. The rest of the time I had to content myself with eating and sleeping. I don't know when I have felt so bored."

Sympathetically I consoled with him. But I could not forbear asking:

"Why did you not get a good book to read, or make a walking tour of exploration through the town, or trolley out to the country for an afternoon in fields and woods?"

"All that would have bored me, too," was his candid confession.

Greatly it is to be feared that it would likewise have bored multitudes of other persons. Common, indeed, is the experience of boredom when one finds one's self alone for any length of time in a place where one is without acquaintances and without definite business to transact.

Which, of course, is a sad commentary on the failure of the schools to educate for self-dependence in the use of leisure.

Somehow educators seem always to have forgotten that there should be training for leisure efficiency as well as for working efficiency. Somehow they seem to have taken for granted that, without guidance or inspiration of any sort, people will develop and draw upon inner resources for recreation and amusement.

Some few may do so. The great majority of the leisure-untrained do not. Unconsciously they acquire the habit of looking to others for amusement. When there are no others available—to sing for them, or dance for them, or act for them, or play cards with them, or join in idle gossip—they echo the lament:

"How bored I am. There is nothing for me to do."

It would be ridiculous if it were not pathetic. There is so much one can do to amuse one's self, no matter where one may be, if only one possesses the power to appreciate literature, scenic beauties, the charm of quiet spots, the delight of exploring the unknown, and, above all, the joy of creative reverie or day-dreaming.

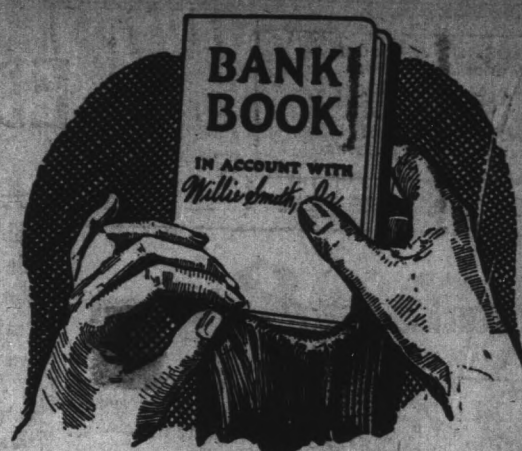

Appreciative power of this sort can be developed in everybody. It is most readily developed in youth. And our schools should make it as much their business to develop it as to fit their pupils for the winning of business success.

Else those pupils later will only half live. And the half alive are defrauded of a happiness that is their natural heritage.

Holiday Cares and How They Are Made

Holiday cakes and cookies are always welcomed by the family at Christmas time. As a last-minute gift a basket of little cakes, prettily iced, can be prepared by any housekeeper from ordinary materials, and yet carry with it the personal touch which makes an acceptable gift. Any cookie recipe may be "dressed up" with red and green edible decorations and pieces of peanuts, almonds, walnuts, or pecans, says the Office of Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. Plain pastry paste or pie trimming makes excellent cookies when cut in fancy shapes and decorated. A thick coating of ground almonds pressed into the paste before cooking makes a very tasty "almond straw." Pie trimming cut in tiny rounds with a small-sized baking powder can may be converted into delicious little tea cakes if brushed with egg yolk and sprinkled with granulated sugar, nuts, and small bits of candied fruit before baking. Cinnamon may also be used on the tops. Goodies like these are easily prepared and do not take much time.

Kitchen Furniture The modern kitchen is no longer a drab, unattractive room for the necessary table chairs and cabinet are now painted in pretty attractive colors. A set consisting of table and two chairs is a soft blue in color, another a lovely shade of gray.

BASE INGRATITUDE

Bill Haywood was under $15,000 bond, as well as under legal and ethical obligation to serve a prison term, when he vanished into Russia. The signer of the bond was a wealthy communist named Lloyd. Since then Lloyd has been sent to prison for other radical offenses, but Governor Small of Illinois promptly turned him loose. For this the governor has been blamed by good citizens, but applauded by anarchists, and so may consider that he has achieved a fair average.

Haywood not only was basely ungrateful to Lloyd, but to the country that so long had tolerated his obnoxious presence. The courts even had a chance to hang Haywood for murder many years ago, but refrained from doing it. Nobody knew exactly why. The verdict was ascribed mostly to the cowardice of the jurors, as no doubt appeared as to the guilt of this defendant. After being freed Haywood lived at ease in the sweat of the faces of his followers. He did not toil. His instincts were opposed to such course, and there was no necessity for work on the part of a man living in luxury without soiling his hands with labor.

The man who went security for Haywood is supposed to be a millionaire. Thus in a sense, despite his anarchistic utterances, he will be classed by extremists among radicals as belonging to the enemy, and thus to prey upon him, far from being an offense, will be considered meritorious. But he saved Haywood, and had Haywood possessed red blood, or moral stamina, or in appreciable measure, the elements of decency, Lloyd would not have been betrayed by his beneficiary.

WARNINGS TO EUROPE

It must be regarded as somewhat singular that a dispatch announcing that the United States had warned France to keep its army out of German territory, should have come by way of London. This is exactly the warning that statesmen of England have been proclaiming. However, the American people prefer to get their information as to the course of their own country, direct from the seat of government. Rightly enough they regard statements from Europe as colored by the desires of the authority that permitted their sending; for there still is a censorship. It is not so open as during the war, but it is none the less effective.

People of all the world who are opposed to war hope that France will not invade the Ruhr region. They can see nothing but harm in such a plan. They believe that by doing so France would be arranging for a great conflict sometime in the future, and that at the end of that struggle there would be no France. France alone is not able to hold Germany in check for more than a brief period. It does not seem likely to enlist the aid of any other power. If it were to go ahead with its hostile designs, despite friendly advice and petition, it would have to be responsible for results, and it could not command the sympathy of those who have counseled moderation, and possible compromise.

But just exactly what the United States ought to do is a question not to be definitely settled by debate, for opinions clash and will not be reconciled. Just what it intends to do, through the influence of the administration, is not known. It will not be considered as having been made known by word that happens to be cabled by a foreign correspondent.

GRAND JURY SUGGESTIONS

Just before adjournment the grand jury presented a lot of suggestions to the court. A little later the court presented a lot of suggestions to the grand jury, making the matter one of fair exchange. Among the first suggestions was one relating to re-organization of the sheriff's force. It is evident that there is need of this. The machinery for taking care of the criminal element no longer is adequate. When a prisoner in the county jail has a strong urge towards freedom, there seems little to prevent full realization of his hopes.

It is true that the jail itself is not fit to contain the number that must be confined in it, at least until such time as they elect to walk away. There are details of each escape that cannot be ascribed to a poorly constructed and over-crowded prison. Saws and other implements seem to reach the hands of prisoners right along. That this could be possible without connivance on the part of some attaché, is difficult to figure out.

Statements have been made freely that certain prisoners have been accorded privileges denied to others. They have been permitted to evade work, and have, in fact, been pets of the matrons in charge of them. It hardly is to be deemed that for a matron to kiss an alleged murderer goodnight, argues the existence of a proper relationship between them or the presence of wholesome discipline.

In due season the county will have a modern jail, designed to retain the inmates, belonging there. Meanwhile, it is not strange that the grand jury should have been, first curious, and then condemnatory, as to the methods by which prisoners walk out when they feel like it.

TO RULE THE WORLD

Gathering his inspiration from the work of the late Homer Lea, a writer predicts the time when Russia will rule the world.

Lea was an extraordinary militarist. Young, crippled, and without practical experience, he advanced with great boldness, theories that soldiers learned to respect. Probably in instances his views concerning, for example Japan and the United States, were extreme, and yet in them was recogzable the germ of truth and logic. He fancied that almost at will, Japan could enter and for a time subjugate this country. In this manner he called attention to certain weak points at which, in time of war, defense would be essential.

It appears that Lea had intended to issue in this country the European situation. Some work on this had been accomplished, and to some admirers, the unpublished fragments are acceptable as gospel. In his view, so far as set forth, he saw a Slavic wave submerging Europe. There are many, quite regardless of Lea, who hold such gloomy belief. That they have any real basis for their faith is a matter as yet wholly undemonstrated.

Scores of millions of Russians are being kept in subjection by a regime inaugurated by coercion and fraud. They are not becoming loyal to the interlopers. If by any course the bolsheviks could win the support of their victims en masse, the resulting horde would be a fearful menace. But Russia, as a whole, lacks cohesion, lacks purpose, is densely ignorant, and being so, without ambition. Or put in another way, Russia has not the brains to conquer Europe, whatever the desire of the present fanatical leaders there.

It's well to have a song in your heart, especially if you haven't the right kind of voice.

There's always a fool at one end of a flatterer's tongue—and sometimes at both ends.

THE STATE OF IRELAND

By DR. FRANK CRANE

On the evening of Dec. 5, 1922, King George of England gave his sanction to the legislation setting up the Irish Free State.

The law establishing this state had been previously passed by the house of commons and the house of lords.

Ireland, therefore, is now a nation. By the treaty which established it the British empire has been rechristened "The British Commonwealth of Nations," a title it never held before. The Irish Free State is one of these nations.

Tim Healy has been appointed governor-general. Although the republicans of Ireland are still unreconciled, and De Valera and Stack have signed a proclamation warning holders of the republic's money and securities that nothing is to be paid out except on written order from those authorized by the republic, the general feeling is that the republic's days are over.

The new governor-general thus expresses his opinion: "We are given a measure of freedom as large as that enjoyed by any state in the American union; indeed, in some respects, larger." Referring to the rebellious republicans, he adds: "The Free State's opponents have no policy nor panacea except wrecking railways, breaking into banks, burning houses, ambushing troops, and laying road mines. No American or Irish-American who sends money here to injure the Free State should close his eyes to the nature of the campaign he is helping to keep up."

This whole action of Great Britain in regard to Ireland is of great significance. It demonstrates that the tie that holds the British empire together is not one of military force, but rather one of mutual advantage. The only reason Canada, Australia and India remain in the British empire is because they want to. They recognize that it is to their advantage to be members of that commonwealth of nations.

The name empire, when applied to Great Britain, has always been misleading. The term commonwealth is much more applicable. All the power of Great Britain could not retain hold of Canada if the Canadians did not prefer to be members of the British commonwealth.

Ireland now occupies a similar status. There is nothing to interfere with the prosperity of that island from now on. The Irish have the opportunity to demonstrate their capacity for self-government. They are beginning their career as an independent state under most favorable auspices. They have practically no debt, and if they are able to keep the peace and co-operate among themselves there is no reason why they may not become one of the most prosperous states in the world.

Of course, there are many who are Anglophobes, and cannot see good in anything that England does, but a majority of the world approves of the present solution of the Irish question, and wish for the Irish nation, as well as for all those members of the same federation, prosperity and success.

THE LISTENING POST

By James W. Foley

The Poet of Nazareth!
For by all the understanding that poets have
He was a poet.

And by His poetry the world has been graced and encouraged and lifted up.
Through all of twenty centuries.

Perhaps you are not as familiar as you might be with His poetry.
If not, you should read again carefully the bits and fragments that He has left us.

As set down for us by His disciples.
It may be that much of His poetry has been lost to us.

But very precious is that which remains.

He was a poet in that He spoke in allegory.
He made His lessons clear with parable.
No finer lesson in the world than that of the sower and the seed.

For every man is a sower of seed.
And it is his to say what seed he shall sow and when and how.

He was a poet in that His soul was graced with that divinest of attributes, Love.
Consider His dismissal of the woman taken in sin:

"Go—and sin no more."
What other line of poetry has meant so much to the world.

The doctrine of forgiveness.

He was a poet in that he thought clearly and with inspiration:

"Render to God those things that are God's,
and to Caesar those things that are Caesar's."
And there is a rule of justice, fairness and righteousness.

He was a poet in that He hated hypocrisy:
"Judge not that ye be not judged."
"Cast the beam out of thine own eye before thou seekest to cast the mote out of thy brother's eye."

And then He adds, with all the force of
His nature:

"Thou hypocrite! First cast the beam out of thine own eye!"
Poets have been always haters of hypocrisy.
For poets deal with truth and love it.

He was a poet in His quick and engaging similes:
"I will make these fishers of men!"
What more delightful phrase of poetry than that:

"Fishers of men!"

And He was a Poet in His hatred of shame and wickedness.

And when He looked out from the portico of the temple and said to the evil doers:
"Outwardly fair and inside filled with dead men's bones."

What other poet has equalled the damning force of that likeness?

And He was a poet in His love of nature.
"Consider the lilies of the field that toil not or spin! What glory of raiment could equal theirs?"

More poetry.
For He found it in the field and by the sea and on the mountain top and in the human heart.

Yes, He was the greatest of poets.
For the greatest of poets has the divinest of understanding.

He made the simple things of earth beautiful.
He illumined squalor and misery with the rays of the refracted light of knowledge and sweetness.

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

Trial of the men charged with the Herrin murders is now in progress. It is too soon to form an opinion as to what is to result. There is fear that the proof of guilt will not be sufficient, however abundant, complete and overwhelming, to cause the rendering of a verdict in accord with the facts.

This group-murder horrified the country at the time. The first accounts of the wanton ferocity with which the score or so of victims were done to death, were almost beyond belief. The senses could not vision a civilized community in which such a tragedy possibly could have eventuated. Yet Herrin is in Illinois, a civilized commonwealth.

Had there been open battle between the assassins and their chosen victims; had the latter, when defeated, been accorded the honors of war, or permitted to flee, the repulsion of the public to the whole procedure would have been less intense. If the actors in the affair are the men at bar, they deserve no mercy, and the more speedily they shall be placed beyond any gubernatorial pardoning power, the better.

One of the witnesses, a newspaper man, told how he had been driven back by guns when he had attempted to give water to a wounded and dying man lying in the sun-baked road.

He had seen six tied together by their necks. They were some who had been promised safe conduct, but who were lined up and shot amidst jeerings.

How's the criminal lawyer going to get a genuine tremble into his plea for fiends?

Reports that the president of Poland has been murdered are at this writing lacking in detail. At the time of his inauguration a few days ago there was an outbreak of popular violence, and yet it was not construed as so deadly a threat as it has proved to have been.

The country that unseats presidents by killing them still has much to learn as to the uses of liberty.

Illustrated papers recently displayed the photograph of an aged rich man at Chicago fondling his diamonds as he stood beside his safety deposit box. He visits the place daily, plays with the gems, gloats over them, and that's all.

It is natural to suppose that he is a nut. Yet people collect stamps, teapots, pipes, firearms, or any old thing, and gloat over them, and that's all.

An Englishman of good social standing has sued an American woman for breach of promise. He sets the figure at $100,000, the woman having much more, showing his claim to be in one sense, modest.

As to his continuing to have good social standing, there may be a shade of doubt.

Until another election, of the seven justices on the state supreme bench, but one will be from the south. There may be no harm in this as a matter of policy.

As a more matter of courtesy to him, and pride in itself, southern California ought to have supported its candidate, William A. Sloane. It could have turned the scale easily.

In the opinion of members of the supreme bench, Justice Sloane, in his brief term of service, has proved himself the ablest jurist among them.

There is a fellow in Los Angeles only 24 years of age, who has just been divorced from his fourth wife, and says he is looking for a fifth venture.

Of course he's a fool. As a matter of courtesy, classification of the wives is omitted.

New Jersey seems to be long on crank pastors. Since one of them got himself murdered the other day, another has appeared who announced that he had prayed for a perfect wife. When the lady arrived, and had sized the pastor up, she went away speedily. He concluded that she was not the real answer.

To cheer him, seven women have written proposing marriage, each certain of being the genuine response to his petition.

The house is making slow work of the Daugherty impeachment. One reason for delay seems to be that there is little to go on. The committee is disgusted with the job, and the chap who had caused the whole business, declines to appear as a witness. It is comparatively easy to start impeachment proceedings, but mighty seldom that it is worth while.

On a recent day the government paid out a billion dollars in redeeming victory bonds. That was only a part of the treasury's day's work, however.

A billion dollars is a less awesome sum than once it was.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

As soon as I discover an acquaintance who wants an absolutely perfect head office boy I shall let that acquaintance have Jimmy. It will break my heart. It will be impossible to explain it to James. I will replace him with a no-account young ruffian who will do all the things that Jimmy never does, and will fire him at the end of a week. But Jimmy must go.

"He is such a wonderful boy," said my favorite stenographer.

"Too wonderful," I said. "He saves."

I believe that office boys should save their money, of course, just as all the rest of us should save our money. But Jimmy has carried economy to the point of acquisitiveness. Not only does every dollar of his weekly wage go into the bank, but other dollars also which he earns out of office hours in some mysterious way. He showed me his bank book once, thinking I would be inspired to increase his pay. He could never understand that ever since I have looked upon him as a soulless little monster.

There have been Jimmies before in this office. I have seen Jimmies who permitted greed for money-making to warp their souls, and not all the Jimmies were office boys. Some of the grown-up ones have scented their wives and pressed down the youthful happiness of their sons and daughters and worn their clothes threadbare and dined off a sandwich and a stroll when they could well afford pheasant. Gossip is a relief to the normal mind, but one was compelled to button his lips tight around the Jimmies. They are forever ferreting for some slight advantage, or doing a fellow-man a wrong to gain a profit.

So I am going to deprive myself of the services of the best office boy this place has ever had. Jimmy is irreplaceable; but not invaluable. As he grows the thirst for more money will grow with him, until he will lose capacity for happiness and content. He will forget how to play, and by and by he will be very rich. But he will have lost what ability he may now have to give out. A man who radiates health and good cheer and optimism is worth more to an organization than a dozen men who merely do their work well and save.

Therefore—vale, Jimmy! I'd rather have an office boy with an occasional black eye.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—?

SAN DIEGO STAGES BIG FOOTBALL EVENTS

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 20. — With three major attractions to offer visitors during the holiday period of from December 23 to January 1, western sportdom will establish its shrine here. Championship football, thoroughbred racing and the presence of the world's heavyweight champion will combine to make an attractive dish for fans during the 10-day stretch.

With a heavy advance sale of seats already reported it is expected that the University of West Virginia and Gonzaga championship football game will draw a crowd of 35,000 to San Diego's magnificent stadium. It will be played Christmas.

Champion Jack Dempsey, who will appear at a local theatre for a week, beginning December 18, will be the personal guest of President James W. Coffroth at the Tijuana racetrack. In honor of his visit Coffroth announces that he will have a Dempsey handicap and has ordered a $5,000 purse for the event.

The coming of Dempsey to this section is doubly interesting at this time on account of the negotiations now pending between him and Jess Willard for a return match. No man in America has promoted as many championship boxing matches as Coffroth and while he retired from the fight game a few years ago to devote his time to racing, he still takes much interest in ring affairs.

The 10-day period throughout the holidays will be a gala one at the Tijuana track. It is the custom to observe each Monday during the race season as the "off day," but during the holidays there will be no intermission in the sport. Rich purses have been ordered for the Christmas and New Year handicaps and these with the Dempsey handicap and the other races each day will offer lovers of the running horse plenty of amusement. Transportation lines have arranged excursions and with paved highways from all parts of California to the Mexican border San Diego should entertain thousands of visitors.

RIO EXPOSITION TO CLOSE MARCH THIRTY-FIRST

RIO DE JANEIRO, (My Mail). — Officials of the Brazilian Centenary Exposition today declared to a correspondent of the United Press that the closing date of the exposition—March 31, 1923—will not be extended as has been rumored.

The officials also declared that the rumor that the exposition would close on March 31, as scheduled and then re-open later, is entirely without foundation. It would be impossible to run the exposition for longer period than that for which it was scheduled previous to inauguration on September 7. The foreign governments represented by special missions to the exposition have their delegations on a budget and extension of the exposition would, in most cases, necessitate congressional legislation. Such legislation could not be adopted in sufficient time.

It was a cold, rainy night and the last train was late. All the passengers were cold, wet and impatient, except one man, comfortably seated in the corner, who added to the general aggravation by loudly whistling a popular air. Finally, one of the passengers could stand it no longer and cried out:

"Will you please stop that infernal whistling?"

"This is a public vehicle," retorted the whistler angrily.

"But that's no reason why you should make it a public nuisance," replied the other, and after that there was no more whistling.

In the streets of a southern city there recently met a couple of darkies and during the course of their conversation, one remarked to the other: "Yessuh, I's done proved dat honesty is de best policy after all."

"How?" demanded his friend. "You remembers dat dawg dat I took?"

"Shore, I remembers."

"Well, sub, I telfs fo' two whole days to sell dat dawg and nobody offers more'n a dollar. So, like an honest man, I goes to de lady dat owned him an' she gives me $3.50."

HOME NURSING and HEALTH HINTS

BALSAM PERU STAINS

It was all over the perfectly good white linen dresser scarf in a minute.

"It" was an entire bottle of Balsam of Peru, which, as everybody knows, is one of the stickiest and blackest of fluids. It is slightly worse than iodine, in that its stains smear stickily across fair linen, saturate it and cloy stiffly.

And there is no known antidote for Balsam Peru, which acts as quickly as does the one for iodine. However, badly stained article may be with iodine, quick immersion in a solution of carbolic acid, and water, or diluted ammonia water, will cause it to fade entirely, and the white of the linen will be restored.

The little girl who was responsible for the damage stood with quivering lips, her blue eyes filled with tears.

"The cork was so slippery," she cried. "It just fell out—and it wasn't quite my fault."

Her mother, hurrying from the bedroom where a sick child was convalescing, patted the child's head and said, "Of course, dear, I know it wasn't your fault." But nevertheless she sighed.

A stain on a dresser scarf is a tragedy in every woman's eyes. It is always in a spot where it is impossible to cover it with the pin cushion or the hairpin tray. And it looms up untidily whenever one wants the dresser to look its best. When there is company to tea, for instance, and hats are to be removed in the bedroom.

Then followed an intensive and concentrated attack upon the unsightly, sticky stain. Immersion in cold water failed to move it.

Kerosene had no effect upon it. Boiling in hot water and washing fluid left the stain still in evidence.

Ammonia water produced no apparent result.

"Alcohol, perhaps," suggested the man of the house.

But the town was in a perfectly arid part of this Volstead nation and alcohol, even in its medicinal, sickroom form, was hard to get.

Alcohol, however, was the thing that removed the stain. The dresser scarf was soaked in grain alcohol which, while expensive, was not more so than the dresser scarf.

Slowly the stain began to fade. Then there was long soaking in cold water. More soaking in alcohol—the original alcohol, having been saved instead of thrown away after the first soaking—and then the linen was washed in tepid water with laundry soap. The stain disappeared.

It was late summer and there was plenty of hot sunlight, so the dresser scarf was allowed to stay in the sunshine for hours at a time. Finally the reward of all the attempts to remove the stain was a snowy white dresser scarf upon which not the slightest mark remained.

A bottle of Balsam of Peru, by the way, may be placed in a tumbler or a small jelly glass in the medicine cupboard. Then it is less likely to be overturned.

LONESOME PROF. WANTED A LASS UNIVERSITY

BERKELEY, Dec. 20.—"Wanted, a charming young thing, preferably a freshman with a good line, to lead a sad and lonely Prof. through the joyous paths of jazz."

So pleads a young member of the faculty of the University of California who believes he is good looking enough to make an acceptable partner, and who believes he would prove an apt pupil in the art of the not always light but usually fantastic.

"It's self-defense against those who would lead the public to believe that a professor is fossilized at 35," he declared.
